

Parsnip Complexion.

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hollow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark, puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow parsnip-colored complexion indicates it.

A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause.

Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of Kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world-wide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention the Seymour REPUBLICAN and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Dr. Timothy Dwight president of Yale, has tendered his resignation to take effect at the end of the university year. He is past seventy years of age.

The Crothersville Commercial contains a parody on "Who killed Cock Robin" and applies it to the democratic rooster which it claims has been more or less crippled.

The Columbus Herald suggests that the democrats of the ninth district surely has had enough of Joe Cheadle by this time. And it might be said by Charles that he have had enough experience as a candidate on a free silver democratic ticket.

A TRAVELING man who sells Christmas goods was here yesterday and stated that up to date he had sold $45,000 more goods than he sold a year ago in the same territory, which is evidence of the confidence business men have in the times.

Taken Under Adversement.

The legal questions involved in the Jackson county seat case were argued before Judge Martin at Bloomington Friday, Judge Byron K. Elliott, of Indianapolis, and O. H. Montgomery of this city, made arguments for the petitioners and B. H. Burrell, of Brownstown, and H. C. Duncan, of Bloomington, argued for the Brownstown people. The main contention of the opposition is based on Mr. Kochenour's opinion that the law is "functus officio." Judge Martin took the case under advisement until the next term of the Monroe circuit court, which will convene about January 10.

SANTIAGO HERO.

Left on the Battlefield For Dead Now Recovering.

Centerton, Ind., Nov. 19.—Burton C. Parker, a soldier in the Fourth infantry at Santiago, was struck by a Mauser bullet, which ripped open his forehead in the second day's battle, and he was left for dead on the field. His comrades discovered that life was not extinct, and he was nursed in the trenches for several days, and was then turned over to the hospital corps. He was brought home by his father early in August, with no expectation that he would survive, but he is now convalescent and has received his discharge from further service.

Not Very Pathetic.

An Ohio woman visiting Boston for the first time has been doing the sights. "I had my greatest thrill down at Copp's Hill burying ground," she said. "Yes, that's just the place for the historic emotions," commented her interlocutor. She smiled.

"As soon as my sister-in-law and I got into the place," she said, "I found myself almost stepping upon a grave with an inscription on a queer little iron cover sort of tomb. I jumped back, feeling the way you do when you step on a grave, and read the inscription, just three initials, no name or date. 'Isn't it pathetic?' I said to my sister-in-law. 'Oh, I don't know,' she answered. 'B. W. W. means Boston Water Works.'"—Boston Transcript.

Honourables in a London Church.

Nearly everybody is aware that at one time it was the custom in many churches to regulate the length of the sermon by an hourglass, which stood on the pulpit immediately fronting the preacher. Quite a number of these curious relics are preserved in various ecclesiastical edifices throughout the land, but the British and Foreign Sailors' church, situated in what was formerly Ratcliff highway, is the only one possessing four. They are in perfect preservation, and are fixed all together in a framework of solid brass.—London Tit-Bits.

Matched.

"Here are a few letters I wish you would mail for me, dear," said Mrs. Tenspot to her husband, who was preparing to go out.

As Mr. Tenspot took them he glanced at the stamps and asked:

"My dear, why did you put 15 cent stamps on these letters? Two cent stamps would have carried them."

"I know it," replied Mrs. Tenspot, "but how would a red stamp look on envelopes of that lovely violet shade? This new stationery is of an exquisite color, and I could not think of spoiling its effect with stamps which did not harmonize. These purple 15 cent stamps are the nearest match the postoffice keeps."—Harper's Bazar.

HAVE YOU GOT TROUBLE OF YOUR OWN?

If Not, Listen to Others' Troubles—If You Have, See if Your Trouble Is Like Other People's Troubles.

There are some kinds of trouble that are unavoidable. Then again there is trouble that is easily avoided if you know how to do it. Here is a true statement of Mrs. M. Langton of 3221 Hanna St., Logansport, Ind., telling of her trouble and how she got entirely over it. She says: "I am well aware every one has trouble without listening to mine, but I hope by telling mine I shall instruct others how to avoid theirs."

For ten years at least I have had more trouble with my kidneys, and back than can well be expressed on paper. It began with "Kidney Backache." I paid little attention to it at first but I see now where I made the mistake. The trouble increased and urinary disturbances followed. The urine was excessive in quantity, highly colored, of a strong odor and contained so much uric acid as to cause a burning sensation. In its passage. Then I had sharp shooting pains and swelling of the limbs which became very painful. For the past five or six years several doctors have treated me for my trouble without arresting the progress of the disease. They knew what the trouble was and pronounced it kidney complaint. One doctor said he could do nothing for me and asked me to make my "will." When I arrived at this stage I became anxious to try any and everything. Some time ago I read about and tried Morrow's Kidney-cure. The recommendations were so high that I procured and used them strictly according to directions. After the first box was used I grew less nervous, and I rested well at night, which is something I had not experienced for months. I am now on the third box, and the help has been so great that I am glad to continue using them, believing that I have found a genuine cure. With all indications I shall soon be well. I desire all my friends to write to me and learn more about the wonderful remedy, Morrow's Kidney-cure.

This statement is convincing enough for the worst skeptic in Seymour. Write to Mrs. Langton and see for yourself. Kidney-cure are yellow tablets (not pills), and are sold by all first class druggists and at Alpha Cox's Drug Store at 50 cents a box. Accept no remedy "just as good" for there is none. Manufactured by John Morrow & Co., Chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Roosevelt's Rough Riders Restored to Health by this Greatest of All Remedies.

Brought Him Back to Life.

New York, Sept. 30, 1898.
Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co.,
Gentlemen—I might have broken down sooner in the campaign about Santiago if I had had time to realize what was the matter with me before the Spaniards surrendered.
God knows I broke down soon enough as it was, and it was a great surprise to me as it was to the other boys who knew me at home. But the Spaniards kept us busy on our own account getting ready for the big fight. That I was a member of the Roosevelt regiment I shall always be proud, and the fights at Las Quinas and at San Juan Hill will be things to talk about for many a year.

But I would not have lived to talk about them if I had not found something to brace my nerves up again after the siege I had of it at Santiago with dysentery and slow fever. I got so I could scarcely shoot, and felt like I did not care whether I did or not.

I lost 20 pounds in weight and a lot more than that in spirit, if you can measure a fellow's spirit that way. Hell! a dozen Mauser bullets could not have made a worse mess of me than the Cuban climate and the mud in the Santiago trenches did. As soon as I found I was sick and my nerves were all gone I hunted for a tonic. I found it on my way back North, when I got some of the Paine's Celery Compound I saw other men using.

How it braced me up my picture will show better than anything else. It is the greatest nerve restorer that can be made, for it brings all the force there is in a man to the surface.

E. E. HOIT,
Dango, Colorado.

Escaped Montauk Hospital.

New York, Oct. 6, 1898.
Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co.,
Gentlemen—If anybody in the whole regiment of Rough Riders had a chance to observe the general weakened condition of the men when they started back to the United States, as compared with their stalwart condition when they sailed from Santiago on June 8, I think I had.

Oklahoma is generally regarded as a healthy climate, and last May, when I left there, I hardly knew what sickness meant. Earlier in life, however, I had lived in the East, and after a month in service knew that what I needed, in my general run-down condition, was a nerve tonic. I knew if my nerves were fixed up there would be no trouble about my general health as soon as I got away from the army.

I also knew the position that Paine's celery compound occupied, although I had not had occasion to use it much myself. I got a few bottles of it and began to take it and give it to a few of my acquaintances.

It actually seemed to build up my nervous constitution almost as rapidly as the Southern climate had torn it down. The same thing was true of the other men I gave it to.

Unless I had found this tonic to restore my nerves I feel sure that I would have gone to the hospital at Montauk Point, and I might have shared the fate of many other poor fellows whose impoverished condition did not yield to the doctor's treatment.

SERGEANT M. DOUTCHETT,
Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Nearly Dead from Fever.

St. Louis, Sept. 29, 1898.
Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co.,
Gentlemen—Nobody can blame me of being disloyal if I say that Paine's celery compound has done more for me than any other person or thing since I left Silver City to join the Rough Riders.

It has pulled together the scraps of a stalwart man, brought me around from all the bad effects of the Cuban climate, and braced me up until I am in better health than I have been in ten years.

My friends in the West think that I am nearly dead from the army fever they called calentura in Cuba. When I got back to Silver City they will be as surprised as I sometimes feel myself. I had pretty good nerves before I enlisted. They went to pieces while we were lying out in the trenches at Santiago dodging bullets. I began to feel feverish from the day I got to Siboney. When the Mausers sang about our ears I noticed that I was getting nervous.

I found myself scarcely able to walk after the battle of San Juan.

I got worse until I got back to Montauk Point, where I got a bottle of Paine's celery compound from another fellow in the regiment. I saw several of the Rough Riders taking it.

With some of them, as with me, it seemed to take the place of both food and medicine, for the systems of many of the men needed toning up before they could again eat as they had done before they left this country.

I don't know much about medicines. We don't need much medicine in New Mexico. But I know Paine's celery compound fixed me up until I feel able to take the road for home, where I expect to tell every one who mentions nerves to me about my case.

RESIDENCE WRECKED

Miraculous Escape of N. B. Hawkins' Family at Portland.

AS TO COUNTY RECORDS

Judge Given Holds That Officers Can Refuse Taxpayers the Privilege of Inspecting the Books—Santiago Hero—$1,000,000 In Fees Withheld From the State.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 19.—Early this morning a natural gas explosion wrecked the $5,000-home of N. B. Hawkins, cashier of the Citizens' bank at this place. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

The family were all at home, consisting of Hawkins, his wife, two daughters and a son, but none were injured. The entire lower and rear parts of the house were wrecked. The side walls in two places were blown out. The escape of the family was miraculous.

All windows in the immediate vicinity were broken. The fire alarm was given and the department and citizens responded promptly and the family were rescued. The house is a total wreck, the loss not covered by the fire insurance, as there was no fire.

COUNTY RECORDS.

County Officers Can Refuse to Allow Taxpayers to Examine Them.

Liberty, Ind., Nov. 19.—About one year ago the auditor and treasurer of Franklin county refused several taxpayers of that county the privilege of examining the public records in their offices. As a result mandamus proceedings were instituted to compel an investigation of the books, and the case was transferred to this county on a change of venue. A trial was had before Judge Given of Lawrenceburg, and yesterday the court sustained a demurrer and held that the power of ordering such investigation rested solely with the county commissioners, and that the county officers could refuse the taxpayers a request to examine the records at any time. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

$1,000,000 IN FEES

Belonging to the State in the Hands of County Officers.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—At the state offices the announcement has been made that there is in the hands of county officers in Indiana more than $1,000,000 in fees that should be turned into the treasuries, and that this failure to comply with the fee and salary law applies to nearly every county in the state. The law is not enforced, and the suggestion is made that the law should be changed, so that the county officers can be under the inspection of a state officer, who will have the power to collect the fees due the state.

RACE RIOTS.

Likely to Occur at Rushville Between Negroes and Whites.

Rushville, Ind., Nov. 19.—There has existed for some time an ill feeling between the white and colored schoolboys of this city. It culminated yesterday in a rough-and-tumble fight, in which Frank Brown, colored, struck Russell Cassady, white, with a club, inflicting severe injury. The feeling between whites and negroes extends to older people, and the police say they would not be surprised if they were called upon to suppress a serious race riot before long.

Trust Company Pays a Forged Check.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 19.—A check for $500, with the forged name of Henry D. Morrison, a capitalist of this city, was received here yesterday for collection by the First National bank. The check was indorsed by William Alexander, and it had passed through the American Trust and Savings bank of Chicago. The forged signature of Morrison could hardly be detected from the genuine.

Fell Thirty Feet From a Scaffold.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 19.—The first accident in connection with the building of the new M. E. church in this city has occurred. Enoch Hartley, Jr., a carpenter, plunged 30 feet from a scaffold, cutting two terrible gashes in his head and breaking a bone in his right leg.

Struck in the Eye by a Shot.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 19.—While John Marks was husking corn, a sharp blade from a stalk ran through the lid of his left eye and penetrated the cornea. Jesse Essex, a young lad, was struck in the left eye by a shot, which destroyed the sight.

Church of God Conference.

Plymouth, Ind., Nov. 19.—The "Church of God," a denomination having a large membership in this part of the state, is holding a 4-days' conference in this city. A large number of representative laymen and preachers are in attendance.

Father and Son Killed.

Garden City, Kan., Nov. 19.—George Neighbors and his son, Lewis, were shot and killed on their farm near here yesterday by A. F. Potts, as a result of a quarrel over the location of a fence. Potts is in jail.

Gets an Appointment.

Thorntown, Ind., Nov. 19.—Dr. W. H. Harrison of this place has received his appointment as government physician in the Indian school at Nevada agency. The salary is $1,000 a year and expenses.

Dr. Robinson Re-Elected.

Jonesboro, Ind., Nov. 19.—The annual meeting of the F. M. B. A., held near the Soldiers' home, re-elected Dr. C. A. Robinson of Fountainstown, president.

Lung Irritation.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it. Diarrhoea. Remedy. After using about twelve bottles I was cured sound and well. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

How to Get Strong

A system which has become run down by the trying weather of the past summer is not in a condition to meet the severe winter of this climate and will easily fall a prey to disease unless a proper tonic is used.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best medicine in the world for building up and strengthening an enervated system.

Do not confuse these pills with ordinary purgative pills. They do NOT act on the bowels, thereby further weakening the body. They build up the blood and strengthen the nerves.

Major A. C. Bishop, of 715 Third Ave., Detroit, Mich., is a well known civil engineer. He says: "When I had my last spell of sickness and came out of the hospital I was a sorry sight. I could not regain my strength, and could not walk over a block for several weeks. I noticed some articles in the newspapers regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which convinced me that they were worth trying and I bought two boxes. I did not take them for my complexion but for strength. After using them I felt better, and knew they did me worlds of good. I am pleased to recommend them to invalids who need a tonic or to build up a shattered constitution."—Detroit Free Press.

The great success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People has led to many attempts at imitation and substitution. The genuine are always sold in packages like this, the wrapper being printed in red ink on white paper. At all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y., 50 cents per box.

A $10 Counterfeit.

A dangerous counterfeit turned up in Indianapolis Friday, and from indications Indianapolis has been selected as the place to work off the issue. The counterfeit is of the ten-dollar silver certificate, Hendrick's portrait and check letter "B." The general appearance of the bill is bad, but in a measure it is relieved by crumpling the bill, soaking it in water or by some other process, giving it the appearance of a used bill. The genuine in the lower left-hand corner has the stamp of the Bureau of Engraving and printing, but in the counterfeit this is omitted. The silk threads and other marks are in the counterfeit, and, with the exception of the differences noted, it can scarcely be told from the genuine. Three of them turned up in this city Friday, and it is believed that others have been placed in circulation.

Brought Him Back to Life.
New York, Sept. 30, 1898.
Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co.,
Gentlemen—I might have broken down sooner in the campaign about Santiago if I had had time to realize what was the matter with me before the Spaniards surrendered.
God knows I broke down soon enough as it was, and it was a great surprise to me as it was to the other boys who knew me at home. But the Spaniards kept us busy on our own account getting ready for the big fight. That I was a member of the Roosevelt regiment I shall always be proud, and the fights at Las Quinas and at San Juan Hill will be things to talk about for many a year.
But I would not have lived to talk about them if I had not found something to brace my nerves up again after the siege I had of it at Santiago with dysentery and slow fever. I got so I could scarcely shoot, and felt like I did not care whether I did or not.
I lost 20 pounds in weight and a lot more than that in spirit, if you can measure a fellow's spirit that way. Hell! a dozen Mauser bullets could not have made a worse mess of me than the Cuban climate and the mud in the Santiago trenches did. As soon as I found I was sick and my nerves were all gone I hunted for a tonic. I found it on my way back North, when I got some of the Paine's Celery Compound I saw other men using.
How it braced me up my picture will show better than anything else. It is the greatest nerve restorer that can be made, for it brings all the force there is in a man to the surface.
